The stunning sequel supplies both locally-sourced quotes that I found with my own eyeballs, and a few from a reddit thread on this very topic, natch.*

"'I'm a librarian, you hulking pain in the ass. It's my job to know things! What I don't know is why you would be funding my dreams with your money when, as you so eloquently put it, you can barely stand the sight of me.'"

"I'm tracking every beat of your heart against mine, mapping the rhythm of the pussy that just took every drop of my seed."

“My nipples are hard enough to cut glass. His mouth covers mine as one hand clasps my neck, and the other hand grabs my boob.”

“I had hobo sex and it was fucking great.” *

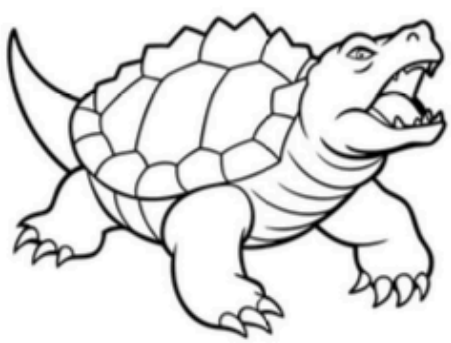
“...her pussy snapping around me again and again as she pitches forward and bites my shoulder.”



NB what in the vagina dentata?!

"'Are all prisons this awful?' I asked Nash.

He glanced around at the cracked ceiling tiles, the flickering fluorescent lights, the peeling vinyl floor. 'No. The place Tina Witt's in looks like a country club in comparison.'

I frowned. 'What's the difference?'

'This place is privately owned. Which means the owners can funnel the profits into their bank accounts. There's no real incentive to improve the facilities if you get to pocket what's left over after expenses.'"

"...basketball shorts clung to the rock hard ass and massive thighs that gave him the thrusting power of a jackhammer."*

"Do not yuck my yum. I have bills to pay, Clara. Also, I use a PO box and a fake name. The only way this man is finding me is if the USPS goes rogue, and frankly they have enough on their plate."

"She kept me supplied with home-cooked pastries and sage advice like 'when life gives you lemons, make lemonade, and hang out with someone whose life gave them vodka.'"*

“Some secrets are like shitting your pants. You can let it out, and you might feel a lot better. But it changes everything.” *

“One unhinged night of multiple orgasms and I was just breaking the rules willy-nilly. Which told me how messed up I was, because I’d never once in my entire life used the word willy-nilly. I blamed Gage and his magic willy-nilly.”

“I’m glad I could be there for the momentous occasion of you getting your head dislodged from your ass.” *

“I swear I feel corners of his cock I’ve never felt before as he continues to pound me relentlessly.”

“And a special shout-out for blowjobs. In the name of Jesus, we pray.”*

“We were both suddenly very interested in the practical business of having bodies.”

“After we settled in, dinner became a quiet affair, probably because it’s feeding time at Jurassic Park.”*

“DEDICATION

To those who have had their power taken from them.

To those who denied consent and was ignored.

To those who have had to fight for basic human rights.

You are not alone.
We see you.
We hear you.

And we stand by you from every corner of the globe.

Be the kickass FMC in your story and never give up fighting!”
